Diagram of Time and Eternity

This chart says it all. The red line represents your life on earth. The blue line represents eternity. While we are restricted by time here on earth, eternity is endless. But life here on earth eventually leads to life in eternity where it never ends. How do the most important days of your life determine where you go in eternity? Pastor Rony answers these questions in tonight's sermon, 3 Most Important Days Of Your Life.

1st Most Important Day of Your Life The day you were born into this world

Without the day you were born, you will not have life. Is it unfair that you didn't have a choice? No one asked for your permission to be born into this world but yet here you are becoming more and more aware of the complexities of this world as you age. Months, years and even decades will pass as you face joyous days and sorrowful nights.

Seasons of life come and go. Yet one thing remains certain – life is brief.

2nd Most Important Day of Your Life The day you begin to wonder why you were born

So if life is brief, what are you doing here?

What is the reason for your existence?

James 4:14 (NKJV)

whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.

Let's look at the above chart again. The difference is striking, the red line (your life on earth) is but a very small portion compared to eternity. What will happen if you die tomorrow? Do you know? When you begin to think about the purpose of life and why you were born, it naturally brings you to the next most important day of your life.

3rd Most Important Day of Your Life The day you discover why you were born.

Are you looking for your answer? Here it is. God created the universe where man can see no end. He also created the complex world we live in called earth. He put the sun, moon and stars in their rightful place. He made all the living things that populate the earth, including all flora and fauna. Some we see on a daily basis while others are extinct.

Among all that God created, His highest creation is you – humankind to be exact. God is mindful of us and have crowned us with glory and honor. We are also made to have dominion over the works of His hands; and all things are under our feet (Psalm 8:3-6). Where are we in God's priority of things? Way up there, in position number one.

You have no reason to look down on yourself. You must know that God became a Man on earth to die on the Cross for the sins of mankind. When the human heart is left alone, it is capable of conceiving evil, especially when it is without God. But now that Jesus had paid the penalty of sin by dying on the Cross for all mankind, we are no longer enslaved in sin. Everyone can now be born again spiritually.

No one ever again has to be unhappy about being born into this world once you know these facts. You were created to be with God in eternity.

2 Corinthians 5:17 (NKJV)

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.

You can start afresh by giving your heart to Jesus. Remember the chart? With Jesus, you can transition from the red to the blue line peacefully, knowing that you will be with Jesus in Heaven for all eternity.

There were some good testimonies given on stage that night. Here are some of them.

Being diagnosed with a tumor right in the center of her brain must have been traumatizing for Stephanie Leong. Together with it, she had also lost her sense of smell and sight in her left eye.

The doctor prepared her for surgery, which was so dangerous that she might not live to tell her story. She was even advised to prepare her will. She decided to commit the situation in prayer at the Miracle Service and seek her healing even if it meant having to go through the surgery. To the glory of God, the surgery went without a hitch and she is now healthy!

Eleven-year-old Fae Ang sustained injuries to both her knees while dancing four years ago. She was healed of the pain a month ago; however, she felt it recurring during the service tonight. A Gospellighter prayed for her and she felt the pain lifted immediately. Praise the Lord!

Shirley Jimenez was diagnosed with first stage cervical cancer when she noticed excessive bleeding. This led to a slew of tests and chemotherapy, which did not help. In fact, it had progressed to stage three. Her doctor told her to pray very hard as statistics say that usually only 30% of people survive such a condition. Shirley came to pray at the Miracle Service and knew that with her faith in God, she would be healed. At her latest review, she was certified cancer free! God is truly amazing and real to her.

BATTLE OF THE MIND

By Pastor Rony Tan

Politicians wrestle for allegiance in the heart and mind of the populace. Some use truth, logic and pragmatism, but many use lies, deceit and manipulation to gain power and contact.

Similarly, God uses truth to save and set us free, but Satan uses lies to keep us in darkness and bondage. If we are to win the battle of life, we have to realize that the battle begins with the mind. Your mind is the battlefield. And this is where you win or lose!

Thankfully, the Bible has given us clear instructions to defeat the enemy. Let those with spiritual ears, hear...

Potential Time with God

By Max Lucado

Psalm 46:10 says, "Be still and know that I am God." Imagine considering every moment as a potential time of communion with God. Try being silent with God.

By the time your life is over, you'll have spent six months at stoplights, eight months opening junk mail, a year and a half looking for lost stuff (double that in my case), and a whopping five years standing in various lines.

Why don't you give these moments to God? By giving God your whispering thoughts, the common becomes uncommon. Simple phrases such as "Thank you, Father"... "Be sovereign in this hour, O Lord"... "You are my resting place, Jesus"... can turn a commute into a pilgrimage. You don't have to leave your office or your kitchen. Just pray where you are. Let the kitchen become a cathedral or the classroom a chapel. Give God your whispering thoughts.

AN EXTRACT FROM THE BOOK THE BEGINNING WRITTEN BY PASTOR RONY TAN

Strategy No. 2 A careful choice of an easier prey

Satan knew that it would be disastrous to tempt both Adam and Eve at the same time. Two are always better and stronger than one.

After observing and studying their tendencies, inclinations and emotional make-up, Satan decided that Eve was an easier prey.

Eve was more emotional than Adam. Hence, she was more subjective. If the devil could get her to be emotionally stirred up regarding an imagined injustice or being shortchanged by God, she would be confused enough to make a deadly choice. There was a greater possibility to sway her than her husband. Therefore, she was a better candidate for deception.

A woman tends to think more with her heart than her head. She is more inclined to be emotional and subjective. However, her sensitivity and warmth have also led her to make good and charitable decisions as well.

A man tends to think more with his head than his heart. His decisions can be very objective but, sometimes, so cold and calculated.

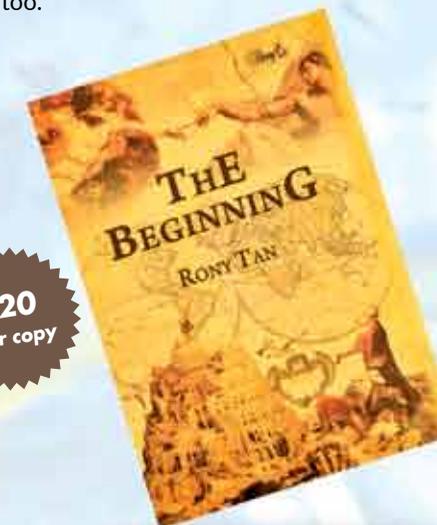

But let a loving couple put their hearts and heads together, the decision will be just right. It will be tempered with both objectivity and warmth.

Strategy No. 3 A careful choice of an opportune time

The devil knew that timing was most critical. If Adam was to be around, it would be more than doubly hard to deceive Eve. Furthermore, if Eve wasn't in the vicinity, it would be difficult to lure her into the midst of the Garden where the tree was. Besides, Eve's suspicion could then be aroused. And if they had met Adam on the way, the entire scheme would have come to nought.

Like a stalking predator, the devil watched and waited patiently. When the two conditions merged, he sprang into action.

The lesson we can learn here is: if you are all alone and discouraged, don't entertain the negatives in your mind. Quickly call up a godly person to pray for and with you. Run to Jesus and plead His Blood over you. Just talk to Him and pour out all your disappointments to Him. Strengthen the moment by reading appropriate scriptural verses too.
