

Miracle Service Report

April 09, 2016
Reported by Edward Lam

Lighthouse will be 38 years old on April 16, 2016. Since our inception, we have been faithfully fulfilling the Great Commission of saving souls and making disciples by following our Lord's way of imparting divine love, power, signs and wonders. How apt it was for Pastor Pacer to attribute our evangelistic efforts to the glory of God by declaring that we can never do anything apart from the Holy Ghost moving on our behalf!

Doctors and medical reports are not your enemies. The enemy is the small voice that tells you that the doctor is bigger than Jesus Christ. The enemy is the medical report that confirms your end-stage condition as if there is no other recourse. The truth is that you have a bigger recourse. Whatever the doctors have told you is not their fault. They did what they had to do. But God has a bigger truth. He has the power to save, heal and deliver. God can do something more incredible than we can ever ask or think.

In his sermon for the night Killing Fears, Pastor Pacer commenced his message with the following question: Do you have any fears in your life? All of us have some kind of fear lurking behind us. Is it possible to diminish or destroy completely our fears? The Bible says it can be done.

1 John 4:18-19 (ESV)
18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love.
19 We love because he first loved us.

Perfect Love
Casts Out Fear.

This verse does not tell you that all kinds of love can drive out fear in your life, but perfect love. Do your wife and children love you perfectly? The answer is they don't. That is why people on earth still fear. Perfect love comes from the perfect God and is displayed in the perfect Son shown on the Cross. And His name is Jesus Christ. The important truth is that you are not going to eradicate your fears unless you are loved by Jesus Christ. It is precisely because you are loved by Him that your fears can be conquered.

We know the power of love. The love of a parent, spouse or close friend can help to drive out certain fears in us. But the problem is that person has to keep on surviving. A wife may have no fear so long as her husband is around, but you will never know what can happen to him. Things can change. The husband can end up leaving this world prematurely and the wife will start to fear again.

Some non-believers do not mind attending church service and listening to preachers talk about God and healing, but they do not like it when Christians speak with certainty on these subjects. But the truth is that Christians also do not have absolute certainty in their beliefs. Every time the Bible speaks with certainty, we believers are struggling to believe that God says what He says, He means what He says and He will back up what He says. And what He says is the absolute truth.

The only difference between us and non-believers is that we dare to believe a God Who says with absolute certainty and clarity, "I love you. I give my Son to die for you. So if you want to be well, whether it's your personal sickness, fear or phobia, you've to believe what I've said." That requires faith.

If people close to you leave your life, there will be a gap or vacuum in your soul. If God takes them home for some reason, you will panic.

Our imperfect loved ones love imperfectly. Even though we have lesser fears when we have them with us, the fears are still there. For instance, a husband fears his wife leaving him although she nags at him. Therefore, we still fear even in the best of human relationships. But a perfect God loves so perfectly that if you let Him love you the only way He can, fear is gone in Jesus' name.

The Bible says fear has to do with punishment. Whatever you fear is punishment itself. The problem is you see the fears you have, but you do not see this perfect God Who loves you perfectly. In your darkest moments when you have lost a close loved one, you are unable to conceive that God is the One you need. It is exactly in these dark days that you need to unfold the hidden truth that you still have a perfect God Who loves you perfectly. God should not be your backup plan, but rather your only plan. What you need to hold you strong in spirit is that God alone is more than enough for you. God is all that you need and He is the One Who can cast out fear from your heart.

Be reminded that Jesus loves you. Dwell deeper and longer on this thought. Jesus died on the Cross for you and you will be resurrected to meet Him in Heaven one day. He will not leave you or forsake you. He will provide for all your needs. In His all-encompassing love for you, He has made many promises to you.

How is it that you do not feel your fears are gone? It is about shifting your mind and heart toward the truth even though the situation is tough for you right now, especially when you have lost a loved one. Even though God may be far away from your mind, plan to know, serve and worship Him and do what He wills. As long as you are connected to Him, perfect love can cast out any fear in your life.

As long as we are not perfect, we will still fear regardless of how long we have been a Christian. Your testimony is important because through it, younger Christians can see how the love of God is being perfected in the battles of your life and how you are growing stronger in the Lord. Fear has become a thing of the past in your life, and now you are able to walk with more faith, courage and strength.

We should not be tired of talking about God's love. There is nothing else, but His love. God gives your spouse and children the capacity to love you and you the ability to love them in return. Most importantly, it is not the love of man that we need, but the love of God.

Verse 19 says, "We love because he first loved us." When we spend more time with God, we become more connected to Him and more like Him. Love will win the day. Love can destroy any form of fear. Perfect love drives out the pain, doubt and feeling of terror in you. There is no other remedy for your fears and pointless existence other than the love of Christ. When you are loved by God, you are somebody in His Kingdom. He will take you further to where you dream possible and give you a new purpose for living.

Here are the healing testimonies to inspire you to trust God for His healing touch:

Jean Ong suffered from a slipped disc at L4-L5, the two lowest vertebrae in the lumbar spine, for 30 years. The doctor told her that even if she were to go for surgery, it would only be a 50% chance that she would be free from the drilling pain that she experienced. So she decided not to go for the operation. Since coming to know the Lord 16 years ago, the pain gradually subsided till she no longer experienced it. However, the pain came back two weeks ago. So she prayed to the Lord at the Miracle Service last Saturday to heal her so that she could continue to serve Him. The Lord did just that for her and she realized on Sunday that the pain was totally gone.

Lily Sng, aged 86, suffered pain in her spine. The pain would be so excruciating that she had to move around in a wheelchair. Even when she was seated, she would feel the pain. Last Saturday, after the healing prayer and bone alignment prayer, there was an improvement in her condition. She was able to walk some distance without the wheelchair.

Priscilla Chew works in the IT industry. She has to look at the computer for many hours. As a result, she suffered from poor vision for two days last week. She came to the Miracle Service to be prayed for. Half an hour after the prayer, her vision was restored.

Praise God for His amazing love! He deserves all the praise and adoration!

An Extract From The Book Firm Foundation

WRITTEN BY PASTOR RONY

WHAT IS QUIET TIME?

It is time set apart daily by you to commune with God. It is also known as devotional time.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF QUIET TIME?

It is to build a meaningful and intimate relationship with God. If you want to know God personally, you have to spend time communing with Him. Then you will know Him and His ways.

WHEN IS THE BEST TIME TO DO QUIET TIME?

For most people, the best time is early in the morning. This is the time when you are fresh and alert. So you are likely to be more attentive and sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit.

Doing your quiet time first thing in the morning is like a sweet sacrifice unto God. In effect, it is giving God the best part of your day and of yourself too because you approach Him in freshness and full focus.

The early morning quiet time is also a sensible preparation for the day. It is empowering to be in the presence of God before one faces the challenges of the day.

When Jesus was on earth, He did His quiet time early in the morning before He confronted the forces of darkness and the problems of humanity. He met up with God the Father first. That was His obvious preparation for His successful ministry.

Mark 1:35

And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

However, if for some compelling reason, you cannot do your quiet time early in the morning, please do not feel condemned or guilty. God understands your special circumstances. Whether it is noon or night, do it at a time that is suitable for you. But keep that daily quiet time faithfully, and then remain prayerful wherever you may go.

WHERE IS QUIET TIME DONE?

It is preferable to have it conducted in a fixed place that is quiet so that you will not be distracted. It can be right in your own bedroom. Some prefer the balcony or any quiet spot out in the open. Wherever it is, make sure that you have some privacy with God.

HOW LONG SHOULD THE QUIET TIME BE?

For any mature Christian, the quiet time should not be less than an hour because there is so much spiritual ground to cover. There are vibrant Christians who will not settle for anything less than two hours of intimate communion with the Lord.

However, if you are not accustomed to doing your quiet time regularly, start with a 10 to 15-minute session. Then increase the time as you progress. As your relationship with the Lord grows deeper, it becomes natural for you to spend more and more time with Him.

If you miss your quiet time in the day, simply make it up in the evening. Don't allow the devil to take you on a guilt trip. If you are not in the habit of unceasing prayer yet, learn to pause for a few moments throughout the day and quickly whisper a prayer from the depth of your heart.

Your prayer can be a simple one-liner such as the following:

- "Lord, I thank You that You are with me."
- "Jesus, I trust You in this situation."
- "Oh God, help me as I go along."
- "Dear Lord, tell me what to do."
- "Holy Spirit, I surrender this anger to You."
- "Father, help me to forgive."
- "Lord God, strengthen me in Jesus' Name."
